Sunday By Kaia Bennett

When good girl Gia and bad boy Flynn are forced to work on a project for their psychology class, they quickly learn that they share something in common - a mutual hatred that makes it almost impossible to be in the same room together. But all it takes is one explosive Sunday and an attraction that runs too deep to ignore to turn their worlds - and the way they see each other - upside down.

If I could bottle up the ability to create such vivid imagery, to capture the pure essence of raw emotion, I'm sure I could quit my day job! For reasons too many to count I Joyfully, ecstatically Recommend Sunday...

- Indy, Reviewed for Joyfully Reviewed

Ms. Bennett puts her characters through emotional extremes that will leave her readers just as raddled. The love scenes are as intense as the fights, and both are fabulously detailed. I have to say this is an excellent read, and the interracial component of the story is beautifully captured and well written.

- Lototy, Reviewed for Coffee Time Romance

Sunday is hands-down, the hottest book I've ever read. And folks, I've read a lot. For the first four chapters, my eyebrows did not come down ONCE... Without a doubt, Kaia Bennett has a new fan over here. I can't wait to read more.

About the Author

Kaia Bennett is a native of New Jersey, a college graduate and U.S. Army veteran who loves music, movies, astrology, tattoos, martial arts, animals and, of course, the written word. She heard the siren call of the writer as a teenage girl, but took her sweet time answering it until she had lived and loved enough to share her work with the masses. She is an erotic author who loves to write stories with diversity, depth, realism and viscerally hot encounters that flirt shamelessly with the taboo. A lover of all genres and a voracious reader, she aims to write stories that are transformative for her characters and readers alike.
