EU Procedural Law (Oxford European Union Law Library) By Koen Lenaerts, Ignace Maselis, Kathleen Gutman

The European Union is unique amongst international organisations in that it has a highly developed and coherent system of judicial protection. The rights derived from Union law can be enforced in court, as opposed to other international organisations whereby enforceability is often far less certain. At the heart of the system of judicial protection in the European Union is the core principle of upholding the rule of law. As such, the stakes are high in the sense that the system of the judicial protection in the European Union must live up to its promise in which individuals, Member States and Union institutions are all guaranteed a route by which to enforce Union law rights.

This book provides a rigorously structured analysis of the EU system of judicial protection and procedure before the Union courts. It examines the role and the competences of the Union courts and the types of actions that may be brought before them, such as the actions for infringement, annulment, and failure to act, as well as special forms of procedure, for example interim relief, appeals, and staff cases. In doing so, special attention is given to the fields of EU competition law and State aid. In addition it evaluates the relationship between the Court of Justice and the national courts through the preliminary ruling procedure and the interplay between EU law and the national procedural frameworks generally. Throughout, it takes account of significant institutional developments, including the relevant changes brought by the entry into force of the Lisbon Treaty and the amendments to the Statute of the Court of Justice of the European Union and the Rules of Procedure of the Court of Justice and the General Court.

Previously published as The Procedural Law of the European Union, this thoroughly revised work will continue to be the first port of call for legal practitioners and academics seeking guidance on the system of judicial protection in the EU.

Editorial Review

Review

The reviewed book is one of the most important titles on the market which in a comprehensive and an extensive way presents the remedies available before the EU courts. It is an invaluable compendium of knowledge on procedures as well as institutions of substantial law. * Lukasz Augustyniak, The European Court Review *

About the Author

Koen Lenaerts, Vice President of the Court of Justice and Professor of European Law, European Union and University of Leuven, Ignace Maselis, Legal Secretary, Court of Justice of the European Union, Kathleen Gutman, Affiliated Senior Researcher, Institute for European Law and University of Leuven

Koen Lenaerts is a Judge of the Court of Justice of the European Union since 2003 and Vice President of the Court since 2012.
