Editorial Review

Review

On MASTER OF CROWS:

"You get that sense of a living world, weaved with dark magic and ordinary lives, as if this place exists outside of the pages and the book is a window giving you a glimpse. Against this background, plays out a touching love story. ...It's not a sex story, although sex is in the book. It's a slow burn relationship that unfolds over the course of weeks. I'm jaded and I had this terrible sense of dread before the finale because I've become attached to the characters. She got me."

-- Ilona Andrews, #1 NY Times Bestselling Author of The Kate Daniels Series

About the Author

Grace Draven has been reading romance and fantasy since she was twelve. In 2005, she decided to combine them by writing a story or two of her own. She considers it one of the best life decisions she ever made.
