Safe Haven By Steve Byrne

A short story from the author of 'Phoenix'.

Vietnam 1966

The bloodstained journal of a North Vietnamese soldier is discovered in the jungles of the Central Highlands. Nguyen Van Khue is separated from his unit, lost in a forest stalked by grey ghosts. When he reaches the remote village of Mau Giang, where Vietnamese and savage tribespeople live together in the shadow of an ancient temple, it seems like a pocket of Utopia in the midst of a vicious war. But are the villagers trying to keep the war out, or prevent a dark secret from escaping?
