Editorial Review

About the Author

John Langan has taught reading and writing at Atlantic Cape Community College near Atlantic City, New Jersey, for more than twenty-five years. The author of a popular series of college textbooks on both writing and reading, John enjoys the challenge of developing materials that teach skills in an especially clear and lively way. Before teaching, he earned advanced degrees in writing at Rutgers University and in reading at Rowan University. He also spent a year writing fiction that, he says, is now at the back of a drawer waiting to be discovered and acclaimed posthumously. While in school, he supported himself by working as a truck driver, a machinist, a battery assembler, a hospital attendant, and an apple packer. John now lives with his wife, Judith Nadell, near Philadelphia. In addition to his wife and Philly sports teams, his passions include reading and turning on nonreaders to the pleasure and power of books. Through Townsend Press, his educational publishing company, he has developed the nonprofit Townsend Library, a collection of more than a hundred new and classic stories.

Eileen Moore:

As a university student exactly feel bored to reading. If their teacher requested them to go to the library in order to make summary for some e-book, they are complained. Just very little students that has reading's soul or real their leisure activity. They just do what the instructor want, like asked to go to the library. They go to there but nothing reading significantly. Any students feel that looking at is not important, boring as well as can't see colorful photographs on there. Yeah, it is for being complicated. Book is very important to suit your needs. As we know that on this era, many ways to get whatever we want. Likewise word says, many ways to reach Chinese's country. Therefore , this Exploring Writing: Sentences and Paragraphs, 3rd edition can make you really feel more interested to read.
