The Little Flower: A short story about healing after loss By Anne Linn Kaland

Are you walking through a long winter? Do you feel lost, still recovering from your grief? Do you feel the God and Goddess walking with you?

A little flower finds herself all alone one early spring. She shivers in the cold, and wonders if she is loved. Why did the sun leave? Where is the light?

This is a short story about grief, about healing a broken heart, and learning to trust again.
