Editorial Review

Review

“Maltby's synthesis does an outstanding job of describing and interpreting the interplay between Spain and the discrete parts of its European empire and American colonies. Based on secondary materials, accompanied by helpful maps, a bibliographical essay, and a glossary, and written for a general audience, this book should be in every public and academic library. Summing Up: Essential. Public and undergraduate libraries.” - CHOICE

Review

Choice Outstanding Academic Title for 2009
