'The Power of Music can Touch Your Heart and Save Your Life...'

In the Tradition of NEW YORK TIMES #1 Bestseller THE BOOK THIEF

The classic story of a pitiless mass-murderer at the Auschwitz concentration camp and a genius, half-Jewish violinist - and the dark secret that binds them...

'5-stars for a gripping and gritty read... A beautiful woman, a love story, a horrific set of villains, acts of incredible caring and bravery, and a man that refuses to cave in... The ending won't be what you think it will be... It's better... Far better...' Lloyd Tackitt, #1 Amazon Bestselling author of the EDEN series.

'Moves easily between eras, the plot tight and ticking along - and arrives at an ending I never saw coming...' Stephanie De Pue

'Literary brilliance... A very dark story of Germany's past...' Shelby Austin

From the #1 Amazon Bestselling author of

The Nazi Murder Machine: 16 Portraits in Evil + Auschwitz: A Short History
(Ben Stevens)

'THE WHISTLER: A MURDERER'S TALE is a great read! Hard to read the end... Poignant...' Maggie

'A Must Read... Magnificent...' Joshua John

'Oh, this is a good one! THE WHISTLER: A MURDERER'S TALE by Ben Stevens kept me totally absorbed... Mostly it is 1930s and 1940s, and concerns events just prior to and during WWII in Germany itself... Orphaned teenager Eric Heinemann is a violin virtuoso, but he is half German, half Jew - a Mischling... You'll follow him through fearful situations that will keep your heart in your throat... The other main character, Kurt Schmidt... a concentration camp guard... This strange, quiet man with little conscience has one surprising characteristic: he loves classical music... The ultimate ending will surprise you. This one I give 5

Stars!' Speedy Grandma

'The power of music can touch your heart and save your life...' Shirley Waayenberg

'An engaging book and totally believable... Held my attention throughout...' Marti C Temple

'Excellent story... You really had no choice but to go along with Hitler if you valued your life...' Glora Hawthorne

'Many twists and unexpected side-issues. Author's long research paid off big-time...' Richard Milbrodt

'Read this after The Book Thief... The same genre and very well written...' Christopher Doyle

'A brilliant half-Jewish violinist on the run from the Nazis...' Rachel D. Reyes

'A story of beauty and brutality during WWII... Well told...' Kadee from Littlerock, CA

'I simply couldn't put this down... The story moves with a speed and intensity that I have rarely encountered... Ben Stevens you are a brilliant story-teller... Thank you...' AS

'Passionate and powerful. I read it in a day as I had to understand... Gives numerous perspectives with intelligence and care. Outstanding!' Sam L

'Wonderful... Haunting and riveting... A desired sense of closure...' hitza

'Great use of flashbacks to tell of what was going on during World War II... Hard to put it down...' Edwin E Hooker

'Compare this to The Book Thief... The writing is clean and easy to follow...Rich detail... Blends past and present in a new and exciting way... Dramatic scenes where the reader can experience the events...' LouZitnik

'Engaging and had me turning the pages wanting more...' K DeGrazia

'A great story... Great writing can be done about those ghastly times...' AvdE

'A most unusual book... A marvelous book...' Carole Weinstein

'Moved!... The characters are very strong...' Amanda

'A chilling insight into life in WW2 Germany...' Meesh J

'I got more and more engrossed... An element of mystery about one of the main characters...' Alan G

'Well written... A pleasing ending...' Lee Kerr

'I became totally absorbed in this novel... This one will keep your interest throughout...' Bonnie Gleckler Clarke

'Incredible... Compare this to Markus Zusak...' Rachel Halls

'Heartbreaking rendition of a terrible period in history... The ending brought a smile...' M. Colvin
