The G-Code: A Modern Day Code for Spiritual Enlightenment, Spiritual Growth and Personal Development By Cochise Tarak-Saa

The G-Code is a peculiarly written piece of work in the genre of spiritual books. Most of the spiritual books on the market today are written in a lighter toned language meant to console individuals that desire to undergo spiritual healing or a spiritual awakening. But not The G-Code! This book was written a back of real life experiences that convey to people logical principles that can be incorporated into their way of living in order to be victorious in the spiritual warfare that we all face each day.

What makes this book unique is that it teaches you how to experience fast spiritual growth through varying channels of personal responsibility and behavior. Although many people are mystified by the concept of spirituality, The G-Code consistently exemplifies that there are no magic pills to helping you ascend in spiritualism.

People generally depend on one of if not several of the world religions provided to them at birth as a tool for comfort and spiritual healing. But what about you the individual? At what point do we begin to depend on ourselves to ascend to the highest levels of spiritualism? In order for a spiritual awakening to take place one must first recognize that he or she is in charge of their own thoughts and actions.

The G-Code* uses a combination of metaphysical, secular and religious concepts to improve the overall individual. When the spirit is involved we must exercise and utilize all available tools for refinement. This is what the G-Code is all about!
