Editorial Review

Review

Pulling the consumer into the creative process is exactly what (Cindy Elsharouni loves about creating adult coloring books. Her creations allow the viewer to step into the world of equines that are covered in swirling patterns and sometimes even sport wings.

The process of creating fanciful equine likenesses for a coloring book is often an organic one. The images are imbued with the artist's feelings at the time of rendering. The whirling pattern always follow the horse's flowing lines though it depends on the position of the horse.

-Collective Equestrian

I am always on the lookout for horse coloring books. This one is exceptional. It is filled with over 40 lovely pages. The horses are done in different styles. Most have designs within, but there are a few more realistic drawings as well.

This book has page after page of beautiful artwork!! I am an artist and so I am finicky about art, especially horse art. I was pleasantly surprised at how beautiful these works of art really are. I cannot wait to start coloring!! If you love horses and coloring, buy it!!!

From the Author

This is the first of many horse coloring books coming ahead. My love for horses has started at the age of 3 and my first drawing contest held for the whole state of NY was an entry of a horse drawn at the age of 5 which won special prize" and a trip to the White House.

Though I am a traditional artist and have held many exhibitions with oil, acrylic and watercolor paintings, entering the adult coloring book arena allowed me to explore with intricate patterns and designs incorporated into realistic rendering of animals. My first coloring book was based on animals which was a lot of fun. The endure hours of creating a horse coloring book was beyond satisfaction.

Adding more beauty to an animal that already carries its own beauty and charm made creating this book come out with ease through the endless hours of work and sweat.

This horse coloring book only allowed me to realize, there are still endless possibilities of new horses and poses and patterns that you can color with your own endless creative ideas. If you love horses and coloring, stay posted for more to come.
